Weill Cornell Anesthesiology Announces New Leadership in Operating Rooms and Perioperative Outcomes Research

Peter M. Fleischut, MD, the Founding Director of the Center for Perioperative Outcomes (CPO), is new Medical Director of the Main Operating Rooms in Department of Anesthesiology

March 14, 2014

The Department of Anesthesiology is pleased to announce that Peter M. Fleischut, MD, has assumed leadership roles as Medical Director of the Main Operating Rooms and in 2013, became the Founding Director of the Center for Perioperative Outcomes (CPO) in the Department of Anesthesiology. He has been instrumental in creating various technologies in the Department of Anesthesiology to improve efficiency, communications, and quality metrics through the use of mobile applications and integration of data from electronic health records.

Dr. Fleischut has received several awards, including the David A. Leach Award for Innovation in Quality from the Accreditation Council on Graduate Medical Education, the John M. Eisenberg Patient Safety and Quality Award from the National Quality Forum and The Joint Commission, and the Weill Cornell Medical College Healthcare Leadership Award. In 2013, he was named one of twelve Up and Comers by Modern Healthcare, recognizing healthcare leaders under the age of 40, and was also named Physician-of-the-Year at NYP/Weill Cornell.

He can be reached at 212-746-2678 or at pmf9003@med.cornell.edu.

Please join me in congratulating Dr. Fleischut on this new appointment.

ABOUT WEILL CORNELL ANESTHESIOLOGY

Founded in 1947, the Weill Cornell Department of Anesthesiology is committed to innovation in perioperative clinical care to maximize quality and efficiency in anesthesia, pain and critical care, along with discovery and translation of novel therapies and healthcare delivery models in a thriving academic environment. The Department is home to over 75 faculty with expertise in numerous anesthesia subspecialties and holding leadership positions in the major national and international societies and journals. Our anesthesia care team includes 50 Certified Registered Nurse Anesthetists who provide outstanding care in more than 60 anesthetizing locations throughout the medical center and affiliate institutions. Weill Cornell Anesthesiology's education program is highlighted by our highly-regarded residency program with positions for 78 physicians in training, including both interns and residents. The Department offers ACGME-approved fellowships in Pain Medicine, Critical Care Medicine, Cardiothoracic Anesthesia, and Obstetric Anesthesia, and additional fellowships in Thoracic Anesthesia, Neuroanesthesia, and Regional Anesthesia. We also have a competitive Van Poznak Research Scholarship to foster the development of physician-scientists during residency training.
